

-Photos by Paige Gnann

Above, students from Finegan Elementary School sing God Bless America, written by Lee Greenwood, during the memorial ceremony. Left, retired Chief Operations Specialist Larance Barrow talks about what he remembers of the missile attack on his ship 28 years later. Barrow shared that the song performed by Finegan was special to him. It was played throughout the basin when the ship finally returned home after the attack.